

Dreaming to be a Basketball Player

by 6D Timothy Wong Tin Yu (19)

Donna was a sporty girl. She wanted to be a basketball player when she grew up because she liked playing basketball. If she became a basketball player, she would participate in the competition.

Then, Donna went to join the basketball team. However, the coach said to her, 'Sorry, you are too short so you can't join the basketball team.' She felt upset. A basketball team member told her, 'You need to do a lot of exercise so that you can join the team.' Then, she did a lot of exercise, drank a lot of milk and ran in the park every day.

One year later, Donna became the leader in the school basketball team and she played in the competition. Donna hoped she could win this competition and kept on playing basketball in the future.

(139 words)

Dreaming to be a Basketball Player

by 6D Vivian Liu Wai Yu (13)

Donna was a sporty girl. Last Sunday, she went to a basketball game. She saw the basketball players were cool so she wanted to be a basketball player in the school basketball team. She wanted to play in the game.

She Then, Donna wanted to be a basketball player so she talked to the coach in the recess. However, she could not join the basketball team because she was too thin and short. The coach said to her, 'Sorry, you can't join the basketball team. You can try again next year.' Donna felt upset.

Donna asked, 'How can I be taller?' A basketball teammate suggested Donna, 'You need to be strong so that you can be a basketball player.' Then, Donna did exercise in the park and drank a lot of milk every day.

One year later, Donna was strong and tall so that she could join the basketball team and participate in the competition. She felt delighted. She learnt that she should not give up so easily.

(168 words)

Dreaming to be a Basketball Player

by 6D Dilys Wong Tsz Ching (20)

Donna was a sporty girl. One day, she went to a basketball game. She wanted to be a basketball player in the school basketball team so that she could play in the game.

She wanted to be a basketball player so she talked with the coach. However, she could not join the basketball team because she was too short. The coach said to her, 'Sorry, you can't join the basketball team. You can try again next year.'

A basketball teammate suggested Donna, 'You need to be strong and tall so that you can be a basketball player.' Then Donna did exercise in the park, played basketball and drank milk every day.

One year later, Donna was very tall and thin. Finally, Donna joined the basketball team. She felt happy. She learnt that she should never give up on her dream.

(140 words)

Dreaming to be a Basketball Player

by 6D Candy Cheung Ka Kiu (3)

Donna was a sporty girl. She thought the basketball players were cool so she wanted to be a basketball player in the basketball team. She went to a basketball game. She wanted to play in the game.

She wanted to be a basketball player so she talked to the coach after school. However, she could not join the basketball team because she was too short and the coach said to her, 'Sorry, you cannot join the basketball team but you can try again next year.' Donna felt disappointed.

Donna asked Mary, 'How can I be taller?' Mary said, 'You need to do a lot of exercise so that you can be a basketball player.' Donna ran in the mornings, played basketball and drank a lot of milk every day.

One year later, she was tall so she could join the basketball team and participate in the competition. She felt great and hoped to be a better basketball player. She learnt a lesson that she should never give up.

(168 words)

