Dear Yoyo,

Let me tell you about the jobs of my family members. My father is a boss of the newspaper office. He makes newspaper and magazines to the buyers. He works in his office. He goes to work by car. He is tall and fat. He has white hair and black eyes. I like my father because he is handsome and perfect.

My mother is a housewife. She looks after me and cooks for me. She can sweep the floor and help my father do his work. She works at home. She is short and thin. She has short hair and black eyes. I like my mother because she is adorable and nice.

Write soon.

Yours,

Jamie
