The Princess and the Dwarf

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful princess. She lived in a castle. One day, the princess went to a forest. She got lost when she was walking there. She felt puzzled. She saw a dwarf on the way. The dwarf said, 'Come to my home.'

They went to the dwarf's house. She saw some dwarves were very friendly and helpful. She felt relaxed. It was because she did not feel frightened anymore.
