

By 3B Jasmine Law

A Bad Day

My family and I went to Happy Farm. The weather was hot and sunny. We brought a bottle of water. We wore sunglasses and a cap.

I saw some fruits and carrots. My mum took photos of the fruits. My dad looked at corn. I looked at watermelons.

I saw two children near a duck pond. They threw stones at the duck. I said, 'Stop!' They did not listen. I called a farm keeper.

The farm keeper said, 'Stop! You will hurt the ducks.' The children felt sorry. I was happy because they stopped throwing stones at the ducks.