Hi Wesley,

You won't believe what happened to me last night in Hong Kong!

At eight o'clock, the weather reporter announced that Typhoon Signal No.10 would be in force soon. So I and my Dad needed to prepare for a very bad weather.

My Dad put tapes across the large windows. I took the plants away from the windows.

Suddenly, the strong wind broke the glass of a window in the dining room. The wind blew rubbish into our home. It was very wet and the rubbish covered the floor. The room looked like being ransacked by a thief. It was chaos I and my Dad were very shocked and we did not know what to do at first.

After a while, my Dad cleaned up the glass chips and I helped clear rubbish from outside quickly.

Yours,

Daniel
