Michael and I went to the cinema today. We came to the cinema to watch the film. We wanted to watch the film 'The Sky Adventure'. We felt excited because the movie was exciting.

First, we went to the food counter to buy some food. Michael suggested buying food at the snack counter. We felt hungry so we bought some popcorn and a hotdog to eat. They cost seventy-five dollars.

The cinema was noisy. There were many people watching the film. The cinema had a full house because the film was popular. We enjoyed it very much. We ate yummy food and drank cool drinks while watching the film.

After some time, a big cockroach was flying around our food. I screamed, dropped the popcorn on the floor and jumped out of my seat. Michael remained calm. All the people looked at us angrily.

Finally, a hero came out and killed the cockroach. In fact, the hero was a cinema staff. He came to see us and apologized to us. Then we continued to watch the film.

I will not go to this cinema again. It is because the hygiene is poor.
