

Last week, Mrs Chan asked me to look after her cat for a few days. I was happy to do that because I love cats.

I played ball games with the cat, Fluffy. It liked the game very much. Thirty minutes later, Fluffy was hungry. So I fed a box of milk to Fluffy. I like Fluffy because it is lovely and lively.

Next day, I went to a park with Fluffy. In the park, I played more games with Fluffy. We had fun. Suddenly, a dog ran after Fluffy. Fluffy was scared so it climbed up a tall tree. I was frightened because I was afraid that Fluffy would fall down. I shouted, 'Come down, Fluffy.' But it could not move, so I called 999. Later the firemen came and climbed up the tall tree to save Fluffy. In the end, I was happy because it did not get hurt. I felt released.
