

Last week, Mrs Chan asked me to look after her cat for a few days. I love cats so I promised her to take care of the cat, Fluffy.

Then, I played games with Fluffy. Fluffy liked the game 'catch a feather' because it was fun. Then, Fluffy was hungry. I fed milk to Fluffy. I like this cat because it is soft and cute.

Next day, Fluffy and I went to a park. We chased in the park. Suddenly, Fluffy climbed on the tree. Later it was scared and couldn't jump down. I was scared too.

Then, I called a visitor to help. A good-hearted visitor helped me. Luckily, Fluffy was saved. I said thank you to him. I felt happy.
