

Last week, my parents gave me $200 as my birthday present. I said, 'Thank you, dad and mmum!' Dad said, ' You can buy you like.' I felt happy.

After that, my mum and I went to a toy shop. I bought a box of robot. This robot was one hundred dollars.

At night, I watched the news on TV and learned that there was an earthquake in Tokyo. I felt shocked. I wanted to donate my birthday money to a charity organization. My parents said it was a good idea. I could help others. I was proud and happy.

(by 6B Yip Chun Kai, Brian)