Last week, my parents gave me $200 as my birthday present. I said, 'Thank you father. I like you!' My father said, 'You are welcome. You are very sweet and polite.'

Then I went to the model shop to buy a robot. The robot was ninety-eight dollars. I felt so happy.

When we were having dinner, I saw a news report about earthquake. Then, I asked, 'Father, could I donate $102 to the charities?' He agreed.

As I donated the money, the staff of the charity organization said, 'Although you are a young boy, you are very generous and kind.'

Dad said, 'Oh! You have grown up and is a big boy now!'
