

At the park

By 3RD Ng Sze Wan, Natalie

Sally and her mum go to the fun park. Sally can see a swing and a roundabout. She feels excited because she likes playing on the roundabout.

When Sally plays on the roundabout, there comes a boy. The boy pushes the roundabout hard. The roundabout turns quickly, so Sally falls on the ground.

Sally feels painful because her legs are hurt. She cries badly. Her mum takes her to the emergency station when she saw her wound.
