

Do not litter!

Peter and his mum like going to the beach at weekends. They eat food and drink soft drinks there. Peter litters at the beach. Mum tells him not to litter at the beach.

But he does not listen to his mum. He litters his plastic fork, paper cup and paper plate there. Then there is a little girl walking past. She steps on the plastic fork that Peter just throws away. She feels so painful. Peter immediately approaches her and says sorry to the girl.

Finally, Peter feels sorry about that and he picks up all the rubbish at the beach.
