Yesterday was a holiday. My mother went shopping with her friend.

Before she left home, she said, 'Please get my dress in the clothes shop before 5 p.m.' Then, she gave me a receipt.

After my mother left home, I watched the news and it was a bit boring.

I felt sleepy so I thought, 'Maybe I can take a nap.' Then I fell asleep.

When I woke up, it was a quarter past five now! I felt shocked so I rushed to the clothes shop. I felt worried because the clothes shop might be closed. When I rushed to the clothes shop, it was already closed. I was upset because my mum might blame me.

Finally, my mother came back and she was mad at me. She said, 'You are too lazy! You should set the alarm clock!'

From this I have learnt that I should set the alarm clock every time before I sleep.
